Applicant's signature attests financial responsibility ability and willingness to pay in accordance with the following terms. Applicant applies for credit and agrees that future obligations incurred with EDI Express Inc., when billed by EDI Express Inc. or a designated agent for any shipment initiated through and /or on behalf of EDI Express, Inc., will be paid within terms unless otherwise stipulated, payment is due 15 days after receipt of invoice. Any amount not paid within established terms is subject to 1.5% interest per month. Any amount not paid after 21 days will be subject to full tariff rates and loss of discount. Discounted pallet rate or spot rate will revert to the NMFC commodity rates and be rated by commodity with no discount. Applicants shall also pay to EDI Express, all costs incurred in connection with collection of any amounts applicant fails to pay within terms. Including but not limited to EDI's attorney or collection fees, whether or not legal action is commenced. Legal action brought in connections with any obligation, indebtedness or liability arising from the granting of credit or any bill of lading, delivery, reweigh or rate dispute, the filing of claims and or the relationship created by the extension of credit shall be commenced in the county of Los Angeles, state of California at the discretion of EDI Express. If applicant fails to pay indebtedness to EDI when due at any time, EDI may declare the entire balance of account in default, upon notice to applicant. Applicant hereby certifies all information listed to be true and agrees to the above stated terms. Applicant hereby authorizes the release of credit information as requested by EDI Express, Inc. through out the term of this account.
